

June 2010

Dear Football Fans,

This letter is to invite you to join our team of hope.

“A Glimmer of Hope”—a local charity dedicated to finding the cure for breast cancer, is having a replay of last year’s Bid for Hope event. We are asking that you join our team of hope by supporting this event with a company sponsorship or with an auction item donation.

Bid for Hope IX will be held on Monday, October 18, 2010, at Bossa Nova located in Downtown Pittsburgh. Heath Miller (#83 Tight End with the Pittsburgh Steelers) and his wife, Katie, will be our hosts. The evening includes a “meet and greet” autograph session with Steeler player attendees, silent and live auctions and great food and drinks.

Through the overwhelming generosity of our past hosts, Heath and Katie Miller and the attendance of many other Steeler players, Bid for Hope VIII was a huge success. The final score—more than $100,000 was contributed to “A Glimmer of Hope’s” breast cancer Under Forty Research Study!

It is our hope that you will decide to join our team and help put our research efforts into overtime so that finding a cure for breast cancer becomes a reality! Please use the attached form to submit your sponsorship or auction items.
